

Department of Communication
Olga Kolokytha, PhD

Währinger Straße 29
1090 Vienna

<http://publizistik.univie.ac.at/>

The Department of Communication of the University of Vienna, a subunit of the Faculty of Social Sciences, announces one vacant prae doc position for the research project “Creative Industries Cultural Economy Production Network (CICERONE)”, a Horizon 2020 funded project led by University of Amsterdam, consisting of a consortium of nine partners. The project will run for four years (2019-2023) and the position is scheduled to start in early February 2019. The successful applicant will work closely with leading international researchers in the field. There is the possibility of conducting a PhD dissertation within the timeframe of the project.

Duration of the contract: 48 months (four years)

Extent of Employment: 23 hours/week

Salary in accordance with collective bargaining agreement: $48 VwGr. B1 lit.b

Profile

- Postgraduate degree MA, MSc (or equivalent study) in social sciences
- In-depth knowledge of methods of empirical social research
- Knowledge of the creative industries sector desirable
- Fluency in English in writing and speaking
- Computer literacy
- Ability to work in team
- Knowledge of university processes and structures advantageous

Prae doc applications should include the following documents

- Letter of intent
- Scientific CV
- List of publications / talks (if available)
- Certificates and PDF of the Master Thesis

Applications (in English) should be submitted as PDF via eMail to the PI for University of Vienna, Dr. Olga Kolokytha (olga.kolokytha@univie.ac.at) no later than January 2, 2019. If you have any further questions or queries, please contact Dr. Kolokytha.

T: +43-1-4277-483 16

E: olga.kolokytha@univie.ac.at